Your duty of disclosure

It is our intention to ensure your policy meets your specific requirements. When applying for or updating your insurance policy, we will ask you questions to assess the risk. You must answer all questions honestly and in reasonable detail in order for us to offer insurance cover designed to meet your demands and needs. If you do not answer the questions honestly or in full, this could invalidate your policy and result in a claim being declined. You must advise us immediately of any changes in your circumstances.

Security

We have carefully selected our insurance partners and, to protect you, we ensure that they meet our minimum financial guidelines. However, the financial position of an Insurer can change and we cannot and do not guarantee the solvency of any Insurer that we use. A liability for the premium, whether in full or pro rata, may arise under policies where a participating Insurer becomes insolvent.

Our service to you and the products we offer

It is our intention that all our customers receive the highest level of service and protection and we only represent Insurers committed to each insurance product. For each product the Insurers have been selected as suitable and provide the appropriate cover. As such, we do not offer competitive comparisons or attempt to explain differences in cover from other Insurers. These Insurers have granted us authority to agree cover and issue policy documentation on their behalf up to agreed levels. A list of Insurers is available on request. You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us for the policies that we offer. We may ask you questions to narrow down the selection of products that we will provide details on. You will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed.

If we use the services of another intermediary to place your insurance we will advise you of the name of the intermediary we use and the name of the Insurer.

Your right to cancel (applicable to consumers only)

Please contact us if you wish to cancel any policy that we have arranged for you. Customers acting outside their trade or profession (consumers) will usually have a legal right to cancel policies for any reason, subject to no claims having occurred, within 14 days of receiving the full terms and conditions. You will always be advised where this right applies. A charge may apply for the period of cover provided and, in addition, an administration charge will apply as shown in Our Remuneration on this page. Cancellation under this right must be in writing, prior to expiry of the cancellation period, to our usual office address.

Documentation

All policy documentation will be sent to you shortly after your instructions and payment have been received. This documentation will confirm the full details of your policy, the identity of your Insurer and any required payment of premium information.

Your new business documents will include the following:

- Policy Booklet
- Insurance Product Information Document

Renewals

We will send your invitation to renew the policy or notification that renewal is not being invited in good time prior to the renewal date. Attached to your renewal terms will be a statement and explanation of any changes to the documents and policies previously sent to you and you will also be advised of your right to request a new policy wording.
